Refund and Cancellation Policies:

All classes are limited in size. Enrollment is on a first-come-first-serve basis depending upon applicant's eligibility, availability of slot, and receipt of tuition prior to the desired course. Students are responsible for providing their own firearm(s), ammunition, related equipment, transportation, meals and lodging. In the event of student cancellation, a full refund may be made, however please review this policy prior to completing student registration.

Deposit and Final Balance Policies:

- Full payment of the course is required at time of purchase for your slot.
- Your training course purchase must be completed either on our website or at the store location at least 10 days prior to the commencement of the start date of training.

A full refund will be provided to the client who provides cancellation notice at least 10- 30 calendar days prior to the commencement of training. A 50% credit towards a future class will be provided if cancellation notice is provided 3-9 calendar days prior to the commencement of training.

NO refund or credit will be provided if cancellation notification is provided 3 calendar days or less prior to the commencement of training.

We understand that emergencies do arise so on a case by case basis, every attempt will be made to assist the client in resolving attendance issues.

If a class is canceled by VDC for any reason all deposits will be returned or credit given to the next course of choice by the client.

Firearms Possession Policy: In accordance with State and Federal Laws you can not attend courses if you are prohibited by law from purchasing, receiving, carrying or possessing a firearm. This is not a valid reason for untimely cancelation and you may be required to show proof of status. If you are found to be in violation of the law you will be reported immediately.
